M'NAMARAS WON'T TALK

Brothers Balk When Arrangements are Made to Bring Them
Before Federal Grand Jury.

Los Angeles, Dec. 9.—The McNamara brothers will probably never testify before the federal grand jury here. It was announced after today's session that the jury had adjourned until Tuesday next and by that time it is expected James B. and John J. McNamara will have begun to serve their terms of life imprisonment and 15 years, respectively,
in San Quentin prison for the whole of the dynamiting outrages to which they have confessed. Scores of witnesses appeared today in response to summons, 128 of which were issued Most of the San Francisco labor leaders are scheduled to appear before the jury after Orrie McManigal
has completed his testimony.

Los Angeles, Dec. 9.—Orrie Mc-Manigal continued to hold the center of the stage yesterday in the grand jury investigation of the dynamiting plot with which the McNamaras were connected.

McManigal was taken before the grand jury for the morning session
and it is understood resumed the story of the dynamiting in which he had taken part. At noon it was announced that he had completed his story, but he was recalled again in the afternoon.

An effort was made to get the Mc-Namaras to testify. Arrangements were made in the afternoon to use Judge McCormick's court room in the Hall of Justice, in which the Mc-Namaras had been sentenced, as a grand jury room so that the confessed dynamiters would not have to be taken through the streets.

In spite of this precaution, however, the prisoners who had said they wanted to avoid the camera squad,
refused to testify, and Special Prosecutor Lawler did not force them to appear.

The scope of the investigation undertaken by the Federal grand jury
here and the one in Indianapolis, so far as it could be learned today, has not been sharply defined.

Government officials, it is thought

BOARD OF TRADE ELECTRIC SIGN

The photograph from which this illustration was made was taken by Smith, the artist, from the roof of the Lansing block. Only the three top stories of the 10-story Trust building are shown in the new Board of Trade sign whose letters are four feet high, are 450 electric lamps.

The border is red, the lettering white Tungston lamps. Soon a "flasher" is to be attached to the sign and a little later the wording is to be changed to read "Boost for Newark." This can be done by ordering two more letters. The big sign 35 feet above the roof of the Trust building was a present to the Board of Trade from the Licking Light and Power company
through its enterprising and public spirited general manager, Mr. H. L.
Montgomery. The lighting company also provides the current, both the sign and the "juice" being given to the Board of Trade without charge.

GOVERNOR HARMON HOLDS CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON

Washington, Dec. 9.—Governor
Harmon of Ohio, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination,
arrived here today and held a conference at the capital with about 25
leaders of both houses including the Ohio delegation. The meeting was held in the office of Senator Fomer-eau.

NO MONEY In Treasury at Richwood to Pay Sal- aries Since the County Voted Dry.

Marysville, O., Dec. 9.—At a meeting of the Richwood council a resolution was passed authorizing the mayor and clerk to borrow $300 to pay the officers' salaries for the last quarter. The town is unable to meet its obligations since Union county went dry under the Rose law. Marysville received $5000 from the liquor
fund for improvements and salaries

WOMEN TAKEN CAPTIVES

And Carried Away by Chinese Soldiers.—Bandits Loot Railway Work Shops.

Hong Kong, Dec. 9.—Bandits today
looted the workshops of the Canton Hankow railroad, killing one foreman,
a foreigner and seven workmen. A report of the crime was made to the revolutionary leaders and they were asked that the looters known to be members of the revolutionary party
be beheaded. The river pirates appear to have been suppressed and the situation along the West river is quiet.
A force of 3,000 revolutionary troops
is preparing to leave Canton to join the army at Wu Chang.

Amoy, China, Dec. 9.—The moderates are declared to have carried by a large majority yesterday's election for a local assembly to take over all the powers of the old executive council.
The new assembly's first problem will be to get funds with which to pay the soldiers who are clamoring for money.
Dispatches from Swatow, a few miles
down the coast announce that serious conflict between the revolutionary factions is feared there. Two thousand Cantonians are arrayed against the local troops.

Shanghai, Dec. 9.—The most hideous
barbarities are being conducted at Han Yang by the imperial soldiers,
according to an English newspaper-
man, who arrived here today.

The correspondent says no mercy
was shown women, children or members of the Red Cross. All youths captured by the imperialists were shorn of their queues and shot. Young girls were carried off captives by the soldiers and wounded rebels were bayoneted. A Red Cross chaplain was tortured and then executed.

The beds of a number of wounded
rebels were fired and they were cremated alive.

German agencies today received orders for $500,000 worth of arms and ammunitions for immediate delivery
to the revolutionists. Almost a million dollars has been raised by the revolutionists in the last few days.
The chances of a compromise with the dynasty have grown remote.

A telegram received here from Nanking says that General Chang Hsu,
commander of the imperial troops, who,
with a force, escaped from the city
when the revolutionists captured it,
annihilated a band of revolutionists
who attempted to bar his retreat 100 miles up the Tien Tsi Pu Kow railway.

Further northward from the scenes of this fight the revolutionists are reported to be blowing up bridges with dynamite.

Wu Ting Fang professed ignorance of the decision of the revolutionaries
at Wu Chang to accept a constitutional monarchy with Yuan Shi Kai or some other satisfactory Chinese as ruler under a constitution and parliament. Dr. Wu declares that no negotiations conducted at Wu Chang can be regarded as official.

DETECTIVE BURNS AND SAMUEL GOMPERS ARE ENGAGED IN A LIVELY WAR OF WORDS; THIS IS A NEW PHOTOGRAPH OF BURNS

New York, Dec. 9.—Detective W. J.
Burns, who conducted the investigation
that led to the arrest of the McNamaras
and who is still seeking more information, makes the direct statement that Samuel Gompers has known for years
of the work of dynamiters. "I am afraid that Mr. Gompers knew at the time the first piece of structural iron work was dynamited, back in 1906, who was responsible for it. Do you think the people of the United States will prefer now to believe Samuel Gompers or William J. Burns?" Burns gives as his reasons the fact that James B.

McNamaras after his arrest offered a bribe of $30,000 for his release and boasted that the American Federation of Labor was back of him. Burns says he expected Gompers to repudiate the McNamaras, but that he failed to do so and denounced Burns for "kidnaping"
the McNamaras and declared that Burns had "planted" the dynamite
where it was found. Burns concluded:
"I have contended from the beginning of this investigation that the rank and file of labor are not in favor of violence. Instead of the McNamaras betraying and misrepresenting organized labor, it is Gompers who has done it ever since he came out in their defense.

Have you heard him denounce the Mc-
Namaras? No, he doesn't dare do it.
He is denouncing only their acts."
Detective Burns evidently believes, was the reply of Mr. Gompers, "that if he repeats a falsehood often enough it may become truth. On no other theory would he repeat the falsehood that I knew the McNamaras were guilty. I have repeatedly emphasized the fact that I had every reason to believe the McNamaras were innocent. I had then assurances that they were innocent and no one was more astounded than
I when I learned of their guilt."

O. C. JONES HEADS LEAGUE WHICH WILL LEAD FIGHT FOR LOCAL OPTION HERE

An organization known as The Business Men and Taxpayers Protective Association has been organized to conduct the coming local option campaign in Licking county.

The organization at the present time is composed of 250 of the leading business and professional men of Newark and an effort will be made to increase the membership to 500 within the next few days. The members of the association have all signed the following declaration:

"As taxpayers and citizens of Licking county, we hereby declare our belief that prohibition under the Rose County Local Option law has caused strife and bitterness among our people, morally and socially, and we are of the opinion that the tax-paying, open, law-abiding, well-regulated saloon is to be preferred to the blind tiger and speakeasy."

"We therefore recommend to the people of Licking county that they vote against the continuance of said law in this county, and we pledge ourselves, individually and collectively, to the people of this county that if the county is relieved from the operations of said law,
we will use all possible efforts to aid the mayor and all other public officials of the city and county to enforce all the remaining laws upon the statute books in regard to the liquor traffic."

and organized by the election of O. C.
Jones as president and he with J. C.
Brennan, Henry Scheldel, Jasper M.
Kedley and Frederick Koehndorfer form the executive committee which will manage the option fight.

A certificate of the membership of the organization will be mailed to every member but the names will not be published.

An Advocate representative called at the headquarters of the league on South Third street Saturday morning and was informed that canvassers for signatures asking for an option election had been reporting and that it was estimated that about 2,500 signatures had been secured in Newark up until that time. They stated that canvassers from the county precincts
would not report before Tuesday afternoon and evening and at that time
they hoped to have the required number of signatures necessary for the calling of an option election.

WILL NOT DETER MEN FROM SIGNING THE PETITIONS

A prominent farmer came to the city Friday and brought with him a flaming red hand bill that was being posted up out in the country to deter
voters from signing the county option
petitions that are being circulated for the purpose of holding another election under the Rose law. The hand bills are the same that have been circulated in other counties where option campaigns are being conducted for the purpose of deterring men from signing
the petitions. The farmer who brought the hand bill to the city Friday stated that people felt indignant at the method and said the voters in his neighborhood would not be intimidated or deterred from signing the petitions. He took out several blank petitions which he said he and others
in that part of the county would circulate for signatures.

When the Rose county option election was held in 1908 there was a general understanding that in three years there would be another vote
and that is just what the people want
when they sign the petitions now being circulated. They want another vote after the three years experience
they have had and they have a right to expect it.

HOLD UP MAN LEFT MORE MONEY THAN HE TOOK

Mansfield, Dec. 9.—At the Erie railroad ticket office here yesterday the ticket clerk opened the door upon a request and was confronted by a masked man with a revolver. He went through the lower cash drawer
and took out only $53.50 in bills and left as much in the drawer, while he also failed to touch the other cash drawer. Ticket Clerk Frank Geiger, 21 years old, is being held pending an investigation.

STARTLING STATEMENT OF WITNESS

Graham Girl Had Heard
That Stokes Killed
Al Adams

SUDDEN FEAR SEIZED HER

And When Millionaire Began
Choking Her She Used Revolver,
She Testifies.

New York, Dec. 9.—That a sudden recollection of her sister's assertion that W. E. D. Stokes had killed Al Adams, the policy king, prompted her to shoot the millionaire owner of the Hotel Ansonia, was the startling
statement made on the witness stand by Miss Lillian Graham, the show girl, who, with her friend, Ethel Conrad, is on trial for shooting
with intent to kill the rich hotel owner in the girl's apartment in the Varuna on the night of June 7. She feared Stokes would kill her, too,
she said.

Al Adams died at the Hotel Ansonia, October 1, 1907, and it was given out at that time that he had committed suicide.

Miss Graham testified that Mrs.
Stella Singleton, her sister, told her that Stokes was a "very, very dangerous man." She said she had heard Stokes killed Al Adams and was seen coming down the stairs of the Hotel Ansonia near Adams' room shortly after the body of Adams was found.

Sobbing fitfully and holding a handkerchief to her face, Miss Graham told the story of the shooting
on the night of June 7.

She denied that she had invited
Stokes to visit her apartment in the Varuna on that night.

"I was in my bedroom and I heard Ethel say: 'Why, Mr. Stokes and I went into the sitting room getting water at about the same time that Ethel and Mr. Stokes came in from the hall.'"

"He said something and then started toward Ethel, waving his arms and calling her horrible names, and I told him not to touch her or I would scream, and he told me I would arouse the whole house if I did. I told him I wanted to arouse the whole house, because he had no business to be there, and I started for the door."

"He chased me and grabbed me
by the throat and began pulling me back into the room. I tried to scream, but I couldn't. He was choking me too tight. Then, in dragging me back, I got near the drawer in the dresser, where the revolver was, and
the story about his having murdered
Al Adams flashed through my mind,
and I knew he would murder me. So I took the revolver in my hands."

"I managed to get hold of the revolver, I don't know how. Mr.
Stokes saw it, and letting go of my throat, tried to grab the pistol. In some way I managed to pull the trigger and the gun went off."

"All the time we were struggling,
we fought along the hall and back in the parlor before I knew it. I was afraid I would be killed. We reached the door, and I tried to get hold of the knob. I was screaming all the time."

Mr. Stokes kept me from reaching the knob, and I heard Ethel scream
'Don't point that pistol at me.' I remembered afterward that Ethel was pointing a pistol at me after a time I found myself in the hall and then I

PHYSICIAN ADVISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

For Eczema, Patient's Wrist and Shin Itched Like Poison. Scratched Until They Bled. Says: "Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Me."

"Four years ago I had places break out on my wrist and on my shin which would itch and burn by spells, and scratching them would not seem to give any relief. When the trouble first began, my wrist and shin itched like poison. I would scratch those places until they would bleed before I could get any relief. Afterwards the places would scale over, and the flesh underneath would look red and feverish. Sometimes it would begin to itch until it would wake me from my sleep, and I would have to go through the scratching ordeal again."

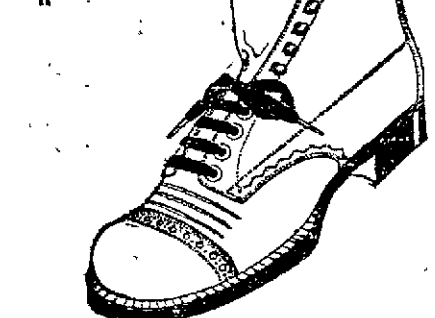

"I consulted our physician in regard to it, and he pronounced it 'dry eczema.' I used an ointment which the doctor gave me, but it did no good. Then he advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. As this trouble has been in our family for years, and is considered hereditary, I felt anxious to try to head it off. I got the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, and they seemed to be just what I needed."

"The disease was making great headway on my system until I got the Cuticura Remedies which have cleared my skin of the great pest. From the time the eczema healed four years ago, until now, I have never felt any of its pest, and I am thankful to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment which certainly cured me. I always use the Cuticura Soap for toilet, and I hope other sufferers from skin diseases will use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Irvan Hutchinson, Three Rivers, Mich., Mar. 16, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp will be sent free, on application to Piles Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 17A, Boston.

PERJURY SENT TWO INNOCENT MEN TO CHAIR

George Ury Says Testimony of Ben Landis Convicted Innocent Men on Murder Charge.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 8.—That it was perjured testimony of Ben Landis, now a life convict in the Ohio Penitentiary, that sent Ben Wade and his brother to the electric chair, was the terrible charge made today by George Ury, whose pardon was recommended Thursday by the State Board of Pardons.

According to the report made by President Samuel D. Dodge, at the board, it was Landis who furnished the information to Prosecuting Attorney Ben Meek, of Wyandot County, upon which Ury and his four alleged accomplices were arrested.

In the report President Dodge declared that Ben Wade had said upon being brought to Wyandot County from Toledo that he was in Landis's power and would have to do whatever he said.

By testifying against him, Ury asserts, Landis received immunity from prosecution on the charge of horse stealing. In his statement today, the recommended convict declares that none of those charged with the murder of William Johnson, the "celery king," in 1901, were guilty. He calls attention to the fact that five tramps were arrested directly after the crime near the scene, but were released without a hearing. In his opinion it was these men who committed the murder.

The unexpected pardon, or rather recommendation, for the governor must approve the finding of the board, has completely unnerved Ury, who went several times yesterday upon being questioned about his affairs. The credit for his release he gives to his devoted wife, who has been living in Columbus for 18 months, and to Mrs. Jeanette Cooper, a family friend, who has been acting as a secretary and adviser in the work.

GIBRALTAR NEVER IS ASLEEP
 Guns of the Great Fortress Are Kept Trained Constantly on the Surrounding Waters.

While it has always been known that Gibraltar, which belongs to Great Britain, is one of the world's strongest forts for both defense and offense, it seems incredible that an immense fleet could be sent to the bottom of the bay getting within five miles of Gibraltar. Not even a torpedo boat could succeed in entering the bay unobserved on the blackest night. The most eminent naval experts are of the opinion that this world's greatest fortress is almost impregnable.

Gibraltar never sleeps. By day and night two perfectly equipped signal stations, proudly flaunting Britain's flag of ownership, sweep the seas around to a distance of 15 miles on a clear day, instantly reporting the coming and going of each vessel. Modern "needle" guns, the finest in Europe, are installed on all the most prominent points. They are unreachably from the sea, even as they are indiscernible, owing to the skill with which they are planted and draped to match the surrounding vegetation, while huge screens drop automatically before them as each shell is fired. They have a range of 15 miles and could drop shells on Ceuta, in Africa, opposite, quite comfortably.

One gun weighs 110 tons and is capable of throwing a shell weighing three-quarters of a ton. In that marvel of engineering under great difficulties, the galleries, are concealed guns for every day in the year.

These galleries are divided into three sections, entry to which is guarded, while one is closed even to high officers, containing preserved stores, munitions of war, rain water (for Gibraltar has no springs) and a complete condensing plant—all calculated to outlast a siege of seven years.

The firing is the most mathematically perfect imaginable. The surrounding waters are mapped out into squares, upon which certain guns are kept ready trained, so that it is almost impossible to miss.

It's a good plan not to find it necessary to square the circle of your acquaintances.

No woman is so economical as to want to make her wedding ring do twice.

A man is more apt to love a woman for what she is than for what she isn't.

DOCTORS ENDORSE NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.

When a doctor endorses a preparation it means more than an ordinary testimonial. His opinion is always that of the professional man devoted to the welfare of the people.

Dr. J. J. Boyd, Covington, Tenn., says: "I feel it my duty to write this for the benefit of those suffering from dandruff. In the average case a few applications of Newbro's Herpicide will remove all dandruff. It is advisable to continue its use for several weeks."

The words of J. B. Thompson, M. D., No. 2 Burroughs pl. cor. Hollis st., Boston, Mass., are not less enthusiastic: "I can only speak in praise of Newbro's Herpicide. It is all that is claimed and perhaps more. Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp but brightens the hair, gives it life and makes it soft."

Dr. T. A. Moore, Duncan, Ariz., writes of his experience: "My scalp was in places covered by patches of dry, scaly material and the itching was incessant. Since using Herpicide all these evils have disappeared and my hair is soft, smooth and growing. Hair has grown on spots before but thinly covered."

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy to kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair. The terrible itching which goes with dandruff is allayed almost at once.

Herpicide is for sale at drug stores, and one dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at the leading barber shops. Be sure you get genuine Herpicide. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. W. A. Ertman & Son, Special Agents.

 knew for the first time that Mr. Stokes had been shot."

Miss Graham was called to the stand shortly before noon yesterday and was calm and composed as she took her place. She was prettily attired in a tight fitting blue suit and a hat trimmed with fur. Around her neck was a fur stole, and she carried a large muff.

She said she was 23 years of age and was born in Seattle, Wash. Her mother died when she was not quite 16 years of age, she said, and she had gone to live with her sister, Mrs. Singleton, in Los Angeles. Later she had come to New York, and had lived with her sister, Mrs. Alice Andrews at the Waldorf-Astoria.

In September she had gone to live with Mrs. Singleton at the Ansonia. This was in 1906. She met Stokes soon afterward. They began going to places together and exchanging notes. She wanted to go on the stage but Stokes advised against it because she was "too nice."

At this point the witness gave way to a sudden fit of weeping and Justice Landis had to announce a recess for five minutes. The witness remained in her chair and slowly regained her composure.

Miss Graham said she had received a legacy of $1,700 from her mother and had given it all to Stokes to invest. She never received any return from the money. She had asked him about it several times, but he always had excuses.

She testified to going from Memphis to the Stokes farm at Lexington to join a house party as the guest of the millionaire.

She saw no other guests there, however, and at dinner places were set for only two.

"Up to that time did you consider Stokes an honest man?" she was asked, and she replied:

"Yes, sir."

"How long were you there?" was the next question.

"Three days and two nights."

"Before you left Mr. Stokes did he ask you to sign a paper?"

"Yes, sir, he did."

SIX JURORS FOR PACKERS' TRIAL

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Six members of the jury which will try the Chicago packers indicted for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, had been accepted tentatively by both government and defense today when an adjournment until Monday was taken. Five others examined and passed by the defendants will be given to the counsel after the panel is concluded. The first two peremptory challenges were used by the defense and the government has exercised 10 of 30 agreed upon by counsel. Counsel for the packers continue the examination along the lines adopted yesterday calling upon the veniremen for definition of legal words and phrases occurring in the indictment and then asking that they be excused for lack of information. It is possible that the veniremen may be dismissed and another panel summoned. M. Z. Zeal of Malta said that he had been approached by another venireman and asked his opinion of the case.

When the cross-examination came the witness seemed to regain her composure, but with almost the first question asked by the prosecutor objections by Miss Graham's counsel brought on an argument and Justice Marcus declared an adjournment.

will be able to determine only after the testimony of witnesses has proceeded further, whether to return inquest here or in Indianapolis against those persons alleged to have been implicated in a conspiracy unlawfully to transport explosives from one state to another.

J. W. Kaiser of Muncie, Ind., a nitroglycerin manufacturer, who says he sold explosives to J. B. and J. J. McNamara, as well as to Ortie McNamagal testified before the grand jury. Though the proceedings of the grand jury are kept secret, it is assumed that Kaiser, who identified J. J. McNamara in the court room recently, told of the persons to whom he sold explosives.

John Cruickshanks, a district passenger agent of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad, also appeared before the investigators.

Many other railroad officials may be called upon in tracing the movements of those whom Assistant United States District Attorney E. A. Ragan and his colleagues believe to have been involved in the alleged illegal transportation of dynamite.

Numerous witnesses now here are expected to testify to important points in the chain of circumstances showing that J. B. McNamara and Ortie McNamagal brought explosives to California.

It is believed that the men who conspired to blow up the McNamara transport explosives leading to the Times explosion and persons who directed Ortie McNamagal to carry bombs here to destroy the Llewellyn iron works will be investigated here while Indianapolis authorities will be concerned with the investigation into the alleged conspiracy to transport dynamite to other states where explosions are reported to have occurred in the last three years.

The state has turned over to the federal authorities all it knows of J. B. McNamara's connection with explosions in Oakland, Cal., and Seattle.

By tracing the signature of J. B. Bryce, admittedly the alias of J. B. McNamara, on hotel registers at other points simultaneously with the occurrence of other explosions, it is believed an attempt will be made to show that labor leaders were involved in the conspiracy to transport explosives unlawfully.

In connection with the possible returning of indictments here or at Indianapolis on the conspiracy charges it is pointed out that rules of law have made it possible to indict persons who formed a conspiracy either at the point of origin or at the place where the conspiracy was consummated.

It is admitted that the government can consolidate charges at Los Angeles or at Indianapolis, but it is predicted that a division of the task will ensue and the investigation here will be directed toward coast labor leaders and the probe in Indianapolis is toward eastern officials.

A subpoena had been served on E. A. Clancy of San Francisco, business agent of the iron workers there.

A number of San Francisco labor unions have been summoned. Among them are said to be Oscar (Vietmoe) Antone, Johannsen and other prominent leaders. Detectives who figured in the San Francisco end of the investigation of the Times dynamiting are here ready to testify.

Dr. J. H. Bullard yesterday attached the bank accounts of Clarence Darrow and Lecompte Davis for $4700. The claim is an assignment of that formerly filed by J. H. Levering, an engineer, who asserted that he did considerable work for the defense and that he was not paid.

PATROLMAN ABBOTT ARRESTS FIGHTERS

Patrolman Abbott was called to "Texas" Saturday afternoon, where a number of bums were fighting. The men were given lodging at the city prison Friday night and when released Saturday morning, they proceeded to the Southeastern part of the city where they engaged in a fight. The patrolman experienced some difficulty in arresting the men, one of them resisting his authority. Abbott stuck to his job and landed them in the patrol wagon. They will get a hearing Monday morning.

SIX JURORS FOR PACKERS' TRIAL

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Six members of the jury which will try the Chicago packers indicted for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, had been accepted tentatively by both government and defense today when an adjournment until Monday was taken. Five others examined and passed by the defendants will be given to the counsel after the panel is concluded. The first two peremptory challenges were used by the defense and the government has exercised 10 of 30 agreed upon by counsel. Counsel for the packers continue the examination along the lines adopted yesterday calling upon the veniremen for definition of legal words and phrases occurring in the indictment and then asking that they be excused for lack of information. It is possible that the veniremen may be dismissed and another panel summoned. M. Z. Zeal of Malta said that he had been approached by another venireman and asked his opinion of the case.

VERMILYA WOMAN HAS PARALYSIS

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya charged with having poisoned Arthur Bisenette and suspected of having poisoned nine others, was stricken with paralysis today, and Dr. Thomas Hagan, country jail physician, says her condition is critical.

DRIVE OUT CATARRH A FILTHY DISEASE

Ely's Cream Balm a Simple Remedy Relieves Instantly All Distressing Symptoms.

If you are subject to frequent colds, or if you have any of the distressed symptoms of catarrh, such as stuffed up feeling in the head, profuse discharge from the nose, sores in the nose, phlegm in the throat, causing hawking and spitting, dull pain in the head or ringing in the ears, just anoint the nostrils or rub the throat or chest with Ely's Cream Balm, and see how quickly you will get relief.

In a few minutes you will feel your head clearing, and after using the Balm for a day or so the nasty discharge will be checked, the pain, soreness and fever gone, and you will no longer be offensive to yourself and your friends on account of the constant hawking, spitting and blowing.

Shake off the grip of catarrh before it destroys your sense of taste and smell and hearing and pollutes the whole system. In a short time you can be completely cured of this distressing disease by using Ely's Cream Balm. This healing, antiseptic Balm does not fool you by short, deceptive relief, but completely overcomes the disease. It clears the nose, head and throat of all the rank pollution, soothes, heals and strengthens the raw, sore membranes, making you proof against colds and catarrh.

One application will convince you, and a 50 cent bottle will cure you. It is guaranteed. Get it from your druggist today. If you are spraying the nose, throat or ears, ask for Ely's (Liquid) Cream Balm.

MIDGE CRAVEN IS VERY FOND OF HIS 10 LITTLE FINGERS

Garnett William (alias Midge) Craven, is a member of the victim colony of baseball players spending the off season in Fort Wayne and out of his presence has grown a good story if the employees of the Fort Wayne Electric works are not stringing somebody.

Craven got a job at the electric works as a chief engineer on an iron punch and as he is a machinist he was doing the work satisfactorily. One day one of the old employees engaged him in conversation and incidentally mentioned that he liked to work on a punch until he lost a finger on the same machine Craven was in control of. In support of his story he displayed a stub on his right hand.

Another employee became interested in Craven's work and after he had looked it over awhile he said:

"I hope you don't have the same kind of luck I had on that machine."

"Why?" asked Craven.

"Oh, I got my right thumb pinched in it and had it taken off." He proved it with a stump.

"Hello, Midge," said a third employee "You working here? Be careful with that old punch, he advised as he walked away. 'It's a Jonah for fair. See them two stumps; They used to be good fingers.'"

Next morning just as Craven got his machine into action one of the veterans of the shop passed his machine on the way to take up his task and stopped to inspect the new employee.

"Say, pard, do you need all of your fingers for anything. I was wonderin' if you'd have any better luck than the rest of 'em, that's all."

"Rest of who?"

"Why, the fellows that worked on that machine. I had it when it was first put in here and one day it caught two fingers on my right hand and—where are you going?"

"Oh, no place," was Craven's reply, "I guess I'll quit and get a job as pilot of a wheelbarrow or motive power boss on a hod. I need all my fingers to play ball with and any old time this company thinks I am going to punch my meal tickets with this old machine it's a mistake. Good night." —Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeits as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most precious possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

Bowling Alleys Open

The alleys at the Music Hall have just been overhauled by an expert and are now in fine condition. New pins have been purchased and everything possible has been done to make these the finest alleys in the city.

Mr. Dahnke, formerly of the Brunswick Company, of Columbus, who superintended this work has now accepted a position as manager of the alleys.

Two alleys will be ready tonight and the other two will be opened the first of the week.

WHAT LISZT DID FOR MUSIC

His Compelling Personality, Genius and Inspiration Made Possible the Later Wagner.

But he introduced into the musty academic atmosphere of musical Europe a strong, fresh breeze from the Hungarian puszta; this wandering piano player of Hungarian-Austrian blood, a genuine cosmopolitan, taught music a new charm, the charm of the unexpected, of the improvised. The freedom of Beethoven in his later works and of Chopin in all his music became the principal factor in the style of Liszt. Music must have the shape of an improvisation. In the Hungarian rhapsodies, the majority of which begin in a mosque and always end in a tavern, are the extremes of his system. His orchestral and vocal works, the two symphonies, the masses and oratorios and symphonic poems are full of dignity, poetic feeling, religious spirit, and a largeness of accent and manner. Yet the gypsy glance and gypsy voice lurk behind many a pious or pompous bar. Apart from his invention of a new form—rather the condensation and revival of an old one—the symphonic poem—Liszt's greatest contribution to art is the wild, truant, rhapsodic extempore element he infused into modern music; nature in her most reckless, untrammelled moods he interpreted with fidelity. But the drummers in the line of moral gasoline who controlled criticism in Germany refused to see Liszt except as an ex-piano virtuoso with the morals of a fly and a pervert of art. Even the piquant triangle in his piano concerto was suspected as possibly suggesting the usual situation of French comedy.

The Liszt-Wagner question no longer presents any difficulties to the fair-minded. It is a simple one, for men still living know that Wagner, to reach his musical apogee, to reach his public, had to lean heavily on the musical genius and individual inspiration of Liszt. The later Wagner would not have existed—as we now know him—without first traversing the garden of Liszt. This is not a theory but a fact.—From Franz Liszt—The Real and Legendary, by James Huneker, in Scribner's.

Roasted Peanuts Hard to Digest.

It is now admitted that the roasting of peanuts makes them particularly injurious. The editor of Good Health says: "Peanuts eaten raw, thoroughly chewed, are not particularly objectionable if relished. When peanuts are roasted they are usually more or less burned. The large amount of fat which they contain is itself decomposed, and irritating acids are produced. Roasted peanuts are very difficult of digestion. They are, in fact, fried in their own fat."

OWENS ASKS NEW TRIAL

Motion Will Be Argued Before Judge Devor Thursday of Next Week.

Edgar Owens, found guilty of manslaughter in the Etherington lynching case Friday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock, after the jury had been out six hours, and who has been out on bond for some time, was returned to the custody of Sheriff Slabaugh.

A motion was made by Owens' attorneys for a new trial and will be heard by Judge Devor next Thursday afternoon. It is hardly probable that he will reverse his own case and grant the motion. In case he does not Owens will be sentenced at once, the penalty being from one to twenty years in the penitentiary or an indeterminate sentence to the Mansfield reformatory.

Owens' attorneys will carry his case to the circuit court and in the meantime will endeavor to secure a stay of execution and have the young man released on bond.

Can Collect Chattel Tax.
Attorney General Hogan has handed out a ruling that will make taxpayers who are delinquent in their chattel tax do some lively squirming if the county treasurers enforce it.

He holds that a county treasurer has the right to dispossess a person of sufficient household goods and sell the same to realize on any personal tax due the county, and also provide that the county commissioners may make an allowance from the general fund to enable the treasurer to meet expense incurred in such seizure and sale. Delinquent chattel tax has been pretty hard to collect if the person owns no real estate.

RAIN HELPING LEBANON WETS

Lebanon, Dec. 9. Through a great downpour of rain which fell today women advocates of the prohibition cause worked to corral dry votes in the Warren county local option election being held here today. The dry workers counted on a heavy farmer vote to win for them and they think the rain will keep hundreds from the polls. In the election three years ago the drys won by 180 votes.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Cankers In the Mouth.
An important precaution is to keep the mouth clean, particularly by caring for the teeth. A constitutional condition which impoverishes the blood is sometimes the cause of cankers in the mouth.

ECONOMY

Estimates of the Treasury department for running the government during the next fiscal year, which have just been submitted to congress, contemplate a saving of $21,233,921.12, as compared with the amount appropriated for the fiscal year 1911-1912.
This is in contrast to past Republican performances. Mark, for instance,
the following comparative figures,
which best tell the story of Republican extravagance:

ANNUAL APPROPRIATIONS.

1890$ 340,000,000

Why have the Republicans suddenly developed symptoms of economy, this particular year reducing their estimates after having regularly increased their expenditures every year for sixteen years?

The answer is that Republican department heads knew extravagant estimates could not pass the scrutiny of the Democratic House.

Notwithstanding their admission
that they will be able to get along on twenty-one millions less, there has been no marked complaint
from the Republican officials that they will be stinted or hampered in their work. The Democratic leaders made it plain at the start that the necessary expenses of the government were to be met, as usual, but that all unnecessary items would have to be cut out.

AN APT PUPIL

Former State Auditor Guilbert was a shrewd politician. Ed. M. Fullington, Republican state auditor, was his pupil. Recent developments in the auditor's office disclose that Fullington was an apt pupil. Recently the auditor issued a statement to the effect that salaries had been increased $31,000 this year under the Democratic administration. He not only neglected to state the state's revenue had been increased $1,470,000 through these increases, but he also forgot to tell the people that his office was one of the departments in which there had been an increase in the salary roll. The auditor set forth a long list of departments, in which the increases were alleged to have been made, and it is strange that he should have overlooked his own office. The increase in the auditor's payroll was made notwithstanding new laws took over an enormous task from his department.
The increase also was made despite the fact that Governor Harmon, in his message to the 1911 general assembly,
called attention to the fact that Full-ington's duties would be lighter and recommended that his force be reduced.

In 1910 Fullington collected over $2,000,000, while in 1911 his collections
amounted to only $17,840; but, nevertheless, his average semi-monthly pay roll in 1910 was $1,687.12, while in 1911
it had been raised to $1,812.87.

The people want their fiscal officer
to tell everything, when he issues statements dealing with state departments.

MORE WORK AT LESS EXPENSE

The records in the dairy and food department for 1911 show that the people made an excellent choice when they selected E. S. Strode, a Democrat, to succeed R. W. Dunlap, a Republican, as presiding officer of this important branch of the state government.

Mr. Strode's record is a strong asset for the Democratic party. He has been more vigorous than his predecessor in prosecuting vendors of adulterated foods and products, has taken more stringent means to curb the activities of users of false weights and measures, who annually defrauded the people of millions of dollars, and he has expended less money for his first year's work than Mr. Dunlap did in 1910.

A big factor toward reducing administration expenses of the department was Commissioner Strode's curtailed expenditures for traveling.

In 1910 Dunlap spent $471.38 for this purpose, during three months of 1911
the figure was $207.49, while Strode in 1910.

low, the weary husband walked the

to hear his wife's step at the door. In vain that husband strained his ears;
then he surrendered to the blues, and
from his eyes the briny tears rolled down his whiskers to his shoes. "All day I swept and washed and baked,"
he murmured in resentful tones;
"darned stockings till my innards

dodge that I must here my vizzil keep

TAFT ON THE TRUST PROBLEM

The only definite thing in President Taft's message to Congress is his attempt to prove that the farcical Tobacco trust decree is a most excellent enforcement of the Sherman antitrust law. He would make the people believe the Tobacco trust decision
practically solves the trust problem.
He complacently assumes that this decision is certain at some indefinite period to restore competition, and soften the evils of illegal monopoly if it does not indeed completely eradicate them.

CENTRAL BOARD OF CONTROL

Much has been said of the new State Board of Control, but another word will not be out of place.

Heretofore each of the nineteen
state institutions affected by the law had been controlled by a board of trustees which met at the institution
under its control at stated intervals,
say once or twice a month, and in a day or two did the business in hand.
This meant not much more than the approval and O. K. of the financial officer's acts and recommendations.

No reproach can be made of the excellent men who have made up the trustees boards these many years, but they themselves best know the faults
of such a system. Could a business covering the expenditure of millions annually be well conducted in one or two days a month? Emphatically no.
Hence the Board of Control composed of four men under good salary, giving every hour of their time to this great work. A great step forward and to be credited with other progressive and commendable legislation to the state administration.

A NEGLECT OF DUTY

When State Auditor Fullington, as head of the State Board of Appraisers and Assessors, valued the property of express companies, no one ever heard of him being enjoined from making a high appraisal. The tax commission has placed an honest tax value
on the properties of these concerns and one of them has sued for an injunction. Officers of express companies
now wish they had enjoined the state
from taking from Fullington his power to appraise these concerns. They are now forced to pay their share of taxes.

One great trouble with President
Taft is that when he is wrong he proclaims wrong is right. And one great trouble with Teddy is that when he is wrong he tries to muddy the water
by yelling "square deal," "decency,"
and other trite and meaningless phrases. Truth is we are tired of both of them. It will be a relief when the curtain rings down at the end of this act.

CONG. ASHBROOK
INTRODUCES BILL
FOR COL. J. L. CLEM

During the past year the friends of Col. John L. Clem of the U. S. A., who ranks every general officer now on the active list in the army, have been using their influence at Washington
to have him promoted to Major General and retire him with that rank.
To attain this end none of his friends
have labored more unceasingly or
with greater effort than has Congressman W. A. Ashbrook, who has taken a deep interest in the matter, because of his personal friendship for Colonel Clem, with whom he has been intimately acquainted for many years.
Mr. Ashbrook has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives, in order to cover Colonel Clem's case, authorizing the retirement from active service with increased rank, of officers
now on the active list of the army,
who served in the Civil War. After next September Colonel Clem will be the only civil war veteran on the active list in the regular army.

The bill provides that any officer
now on the active list of the army
who served not less than 100 days in the regular or volunteer forces of the United States during the Civil War and prior to April 9, 1865, who was honorably discharged therefrom, and who shall have served not less than 10 years as a commissioned officer of the regular army, shall, at his own request, be placed on the retired list of the army with the rank of Major-General.

JOHN T. NORRIS, FAMOUS SLEUTH, DEAD AT DAYTON

Springfield, O., Dec. 9.—John T.
Norris, long noted as a detective, lies dead at St. Elizabeth hospital, Dayton, at the age of 73.

Norris, in his detective career,
rounded up the greatest gang of counterfeiters and green goods men in the country and was identified with a number of nationally known cases. He was actively engaged in detective work until the death of his wife a few years ago. Grief over her death is held responsible for his last illness.
A few weeks ago he went to Dayton to live with his daughter, Mrs. W.
G. Holloway. His mind was affected and friends were contemplating sending him to the State hospital when he was stricken with paralysis.
As a detective, Norris never worked under cover. He courted newspaper notoriety and ascribed his fame and success to the publicity he received.
He claimed Billy Burns as one of his protoges.

Probably the greatest capture made by Norris was the arrest of Lou Hank, the notorious three-card monte man, who was wanted for killing a man on a B. and O. train. The Pinkertons gave Hank up as dead. Hank was brought back to Ohio, convicted and served a long term in the penitentiary, completing his sentence ten years ago.

Norris had a wide knowledge of the law and often used this to evade
it. This was demonstrated at the time of the Sullivan Kilrain fight at Richburg, Miss. Norris was employed by Kilrain to get him out of the state if the officials took any action as was threatened. He prepared an affidavit to serve on Kilrain. The story of this affidavit has been written and rewritten by sporting writers of the country.
Only a few years ago Norris was tried in the criminal courts of Clark for blackmail in connection with the indictment of Springfield saloonkeepers and was convicted but the Circuit court set aside the verdict because of
"slip of the tongue" by Judge Fisher
the trial judge, in charging the jury.
At the second trial the jury disagreed.
Norris was the inventor of the Ore-
son boot used on prisoners to prevent their escape in travel. It has been adopted by many state prisons.

OBITUARY

PERRY F. BUCHANAN.
Perry F. Buchanan was born Jan.
20, 1884, in Licking county, O. He was married to Miss Ethel B. Elliott of this city, March 26, 1904. To this union was born one son, Walter,
now six years old.

About the last of October he went to Beasejour, Manitoba, Can., to follow his chosen occupation, that of a glassblower, but the rigor of the climate was too severe for his already weakened constitution, and before he could return to the bosom of his little family, he was stricken, and died Nov. 26, 1911, at the age of 27 years, 10 months and 1 day. He left a wife, little son, father, mother,
two brothers and one sister, besides
a large circle of friends and associates.

In early life he united with the Episcopal church and was baptized.
Perry was of a quiet disposition,
always ready to speak a kind word
or lend a helping hand, ever thinking of the welfare of others before himself.
He was much devoted to his family, striving in every honorable way to prepare for an evil day. In this respect it can be said of him: "He has done what he could."

MARGARET HARRIS.
Miss Margaret Armstrong was born near Troy, Miami county, May 28, 1832, and departed this life Nov.
28, 1911, aged 79 years and 6
months. She united with the Methodist church at the age of 15 years.
She was united in marriage with Mr.
James R. Harris in 1853, the husband having preceded her to the better land Nov. 7, 1905. To this union were born nine children, of whom seven survive to mourn the loss of a dear mother. Also left to mourn the loss of a dear grandmother
are 23 grandchildren and 17
great-grandchildren.

MASS MEETING.

On account of the fact that Rev.
C. C. Roof has a funeral service tomorrow afternoon and the additional fact that there is to be a funeral service in the U. B. church, the regular meeting at that place which was to have been addressed by Rev. Mr.
Roof under the auspices of the Christian Men's Union has been recalled.
There will be a meeting of the advisory committee at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Central Church of Christ at the close of the mass temperance meeting which is to be held in that church at 2 o'clock.

Grip and Catarrh.
Mrs. Laura Berberick, No. 1111
Willow Ave., Hoboken, New Jersey,
writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe, and was confined to bed, and when I came up after my sickness I was troubled with hoarseness and slime in head
and throat, and was told I had catarrh. I took some medicine, but without much benefit.

"Every winter since, for four years, I have had la grippe (last winter four times), and the catarrh grew worse. I could not lie down or sleep
at night. Was always troubled with slime,
pain in my back, and
a terrible headache
every morning when I woke up, and had no blood. I bought a bottle of Peruna, and after using three bottles had relief. Peruna has been a great benefit to my health. It has given me blood and strength. I can lie down and sleep without being troubled. I have no pain, headache, or noise in my head."

Catarrh of Head.
Mrs. A. L. Wetzel, 1023 Ohio St., Terre Haute, Ind., writes:
"When I began to take your medicine I could not smell nor hear a church bell ring. Now I can both smell and hear."
When I began your treatment my head was terrible. I had buzzing and chirping noises in my head. I followed your advice faithfully and took Peruna as you told me. Now I might say I am well.
Three months ago I went around like a snail, now I feel brisk and active. I will always praise Peruna."

SOCIETY

From now until the holidays the social events will grow fewer and fewer until they dwindle to almost nothing to be rekindled in all the brilliancy of Christmas gayety and holiday festivity. Many social events which had been planned for this and next week have been postponed so that the many young people now away at school will have the opportunity to share in the home pleasures during their vacation.

Just now shopping is the thing that is keeping the women folks busily engaged and the last few days the shops and stores about the city have been assuming a real holiday aspect. The merchants are putting forth every effort to aid and make convenient buying for the gift seekers and in many of the stores it is noted that there is hardly a piece of merchandise in the stores but what has a sample in plain view of the purchasers.

This arrangement gives inspiration to the uncertain one and makes easy selection for the one who has mapped out what father is to receive, mother and down the list. In the depths of a gentlemen's furnishing department the other day attention was called to a gift for a man which was essentially a man's gift. It was a laundry bag, not a fluffy, beruffled bag, with ribbon streamers for drawing it together and handsomely embroidered, which is the usual laundry bag given to father or brother and for which they almost invariably think pretty but perfectly useless. This bag was made of khaki and was shaped somewhat like the golf bags. The top of it was fitted with buttonholes worked at spaces of about two inches. With the bag you buy a steel ring which is securely fastened into a screw in the door or wall and on this ring you place the bag fastening it with the buttonholes.

HEART AND HOME TALKS

BY BARBARA BOYD

Looking For Good in Disaster.

WHEN disaster or misfortune of any kind overtakes us, we usually sit down among the ruins and bewail our fate. After awhile, we take up life again, but we trudge on despondently, or gloomily, or unhappily. All joy seems to have gone from living. But why not, for the sake of experiment, if for no other reason, take a different viewpoint? Try it once, at any rate, and see what you thresh out of it. Instead of saying, "This thing that has come to me is trouble, is sorrow, is ill," say, "It is good." You'll be surprised at the different hue life takes on.

For it is good. Don't mistake that. And you can find the good if you look for it. It may take some time. Your eyesight for this sort of work may be poor. But you'll find it, if you seek sincerely.

Many will say that this isn't so, that they have had trouble and disaster in which could possibly be no good. But let's consider some of the things which overtake people which are looked upon as misfortune.

One girl's father failed in business, and she was compelled suddenly and with little preparation, to go out into the world and earn a living, not only for herself, but for her father and mother, for her father was old and could find nothing to do. The world looked on him as a failure and did not want him. She had been a society girl and had lived a butterfly existence. But today, she would not give the treasures she has gained of sympathy, of knowledge of human nature, of a bigger understanding of life, for the money and social position that were once hers. She says there is no comparison in the real joy of living between her present life and her former existence.

A woman lost a business position which she had held for many years and was compelled to go back to her country home and live rather a lonely life with her aged parents. For a while, she bitterly rebelled at the change in her circumstances. Then she began to look for the good. And into her life has come the joy of love which she never knew before in such full measure, the pleasure of making a happy, beautiful home. Her whole nature is softening and becoming more loving and gentle. And these are possessions of more value than the excitement and fleeting successes of a business day.

Another woman was suddenly crippled and compelled to spend her days and weeks and years upon a bed of suffering. But she is learning as she lies there through lonely days and nights, the meaning of the soul life. She is gaining a knowledge of a new heaven and a new earth, she is beginning to know the immortal spirit within her. Before her accident, she had no time, in her busy, rushing life, for such things. But this knowledge which she is slowly gaining is more precious to her than anything else she could have.

It should not be necessary for us to have to learn things in this way. This good is all about us for our taking. But if we will not take it, then it is so necessary for us to have it, that it must, perhaps, assume the guise of some misfortune to wake us to see it.

So if disaster overtake you, whether it is little or big, look for the good. Somewhere or other about it, is something to bring you joy. When you have found the good, life will have a new meaning, and a greater happiness will fill your days.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club will have for hostess on the club day of next week, Mrs. Fred Black, who will entertain at her home in Hudson avenue.

Mrs. Charles Conrad entertained the members of the Coterie club on Friday afternoon at her home in Buena Vista street. The following program was given:

The United States Postal Service—Mrs. Agnew.

Origin and Growth of Mormonism—Mrs. Brooks.

Current History—Mrs. Foster.

Roll Call—Miscellaneous Quotations.

Critic—Mrs. Long. The guests of the club were Mrs. R. F. Gilpatrick, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Slinger, Mrs. James Conners, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. Willis Boggs, Mrs. Samuel Dunlap of Canal Dover, Mrs. Wood and daughter Catherine of Columbus, and Mrs. Gertrude Timms of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Conrad was assisted in serving the luncheon by Miss Amy Alspach, Ruth Agnew and Annabelle Conrad. During the social hour several vocal and instrumental numbers were given.

Miss Emma Jones was hostess to the Polinetta club Friday afternoon at her home in Stanberry street. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing. A dainty luncheon was served the following members: Mesdames C. B. Keller, Charles Warden, Fred W. Ryan, Forrest Wilson, Spencer Fink, and Misses Mary Shephard and Lillian Keller.

The Maccabee Pedro Club was entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed. Nutter, in North street. Five tables of players participated in the game and the souvenirs were received by Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Will Long and Mrs. J. W. Gaumerding. A delicious luncheon was served to the members and the guests, Mrs. George Hand, Mrs. J. W. Gaumerding and Miss Maple Shamp. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry 103 East Main street, Friday evening, Dec. 22.

SHORT LIBERTY WAS ENJOYED BY "GRANNY" ELBEN

Safety Director Scott had an exciting experience at noon Saturday, when he arrested "Granny" Elben on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Complaint was made that Elben was creating a disturbance in Walnut street, and Director Scott went after him.

Elben resisted all the way to the patrol station and on his arrival there, Scott left his prisoner for an instant while he answered a telephone call.

In spite of the crowd which surrounded the door Elben made a dash for liberty. The crowd melted from the exit and Granny started on a run for the alley across the street. Scott dropped the telephone receiver and chased his man.

As the prisoner stepped on the sidewalk, Scott made a living tackle and the two men rolled in the gutter. Officer Abbott was close behind Scott and Granny submitted to arrest without further trouble.

Elben was released from the county jail yesterday noon. Twenty-four hours of liberty is about as much as he could stand and he will probably get back to his old home Monday.

A WORSTED MORNING SACQUE IN STRIPE EFFECT.

When houses were not as thoroughly well warmed as they are now, every woman had her knitted or crocheted "camisole" for wear in the early morning hours before the "furnace came up." A little wrap of this sort is always acceptable to the woman who lives in the suburbs where houses are apt to be draughty even when steam heated. This charming morning sacque is crocheted from lavender and white worsted in a striped effect which is very becoming to the figure. The top of the sacque comes far enough over the arms to give comfortable warmth.

STUNG!

BY MISS HILDA WADDELL.

I broke her husband's will, you see. For the charming widow Brown. Then wed the widow, for she was the richest dame in town. When we'd been married for a week Or maybe two or three I found out quite to my surprise She'd broke my will for me.

AMUSEMENTS

What the Press Agent Says

Last Night's Play.

A crowded house greeted Hanlon's "Fantasma" at the Auditorium theatre Friday evening. This is the first visit to Newark of one of the spectacular pantomimes for some time, "The Devil's Auction" being the last one to be seen here.

Last night's play was superbly equipped from a scenic standpoint, it being really astonishing the number of changes made and the elaborateness of the production. The company also was a large one being made up largely of vaudeville acts, one or two of which have been previously seen in Newark. One of the best things with the show was the act put on by the Youngmann family, of tight wire walking. It was one of the best acts of its kind ever seen here.

Another interesting bit of work was done by Clara Thropp, who sang several songs and gave a number of imitations. Miss Thropp will be remembered as being with "The Red Mill" here last year.

The show was made up of three acts and thirteen scenes and there was "something doing" every minute.

Howe's Pictures.

After the first shock of the flood at Austin, Pa., had passed, some clear-headed person sent out a meagre report to the newspapers. Soon representatives of the leading publications were on the way to tell the public in greater detail of the story of havoc wrought. But representatives of Lyman H. Howe, were there first. With his customary enterprise, Mr. Howe had despatched several of his best photographers to the scene within an hour after the first news of the disaster had reached the outside world.

Mr. Howe had the story recorded in his films before the majority of the newspaper scribes had reached the spot.

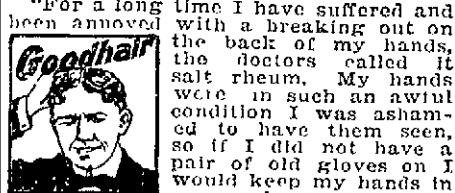

The Orpheum.

The first three days of next week patrons of the Orpheum will be favored by another of those popular musical comedies. Arthur Nelson will present "The Telephone Girls," one of his latest successes, which is said to be full of good singing and comedy, offered by pretty girls and clever comedians. They carry special scenery and novel paraphernalia for their song numbers as the animated eggs for "O You Chickens." Other numbers are "My Broncho Girl" by Ruth Berry and chorus, "The Dancing Parson and Rubie" by Sid Winters and Howard De Ferris. Other features are the Steel City Quartet in late song successes, and Babe Barum and Lenora De Larsh, coon shouters and Spanish dancers, also Sid Winters and Eunice Hallie, German and parody singers. There will be a new picture.

Of all the feathered tribe the humming bird is the smallest, and in Mexico its egg is said to be scarcely larger than a pin's head.

HAD SALT-RHEUM FOR MANY YEARS

Doctors Failed to Cure Him—Goodhair Soap Did the Work in Three Days.

"For a long time I have suffered and been annoyed with a breaking out on the back of my hands, the doctors called it salt rheum. My hands were in such an awful condition I was ashamed to have them seen, so I did not have a pair of old gloves on I would keep my hands in my pockets to prevent undue attention. Consulted several doctors and tried a number of remedies without any good results. Mr. J. I. Bolton of this city gave me two little samples of Goodhair Soap, requesting me to try it. The first application of the latter of this wonderful Soap gave me benefit and in three days time my hands were entirely well."

LEADERS OF THE HOLY GHOSTS FOUND GUILTY

Portland, Dec. 9.—Rev. Frank Sandford, leader of the "Holy Ghost and Us" cult, was found guilty of causing the deaths of six persons before a grand jury in the United States district court here today. He will be sentenced December 15. During his trial Sandford refused to present any evidence or employ a lawyer. His only statement regarding the case was made today and reads like a story of medieval times. Following the destruction of the sister ship "Kingdom," on the West Coast of Africa, Sandford said he received instruction from God to continue his journey regardless of the sufferings of those aboard the craft. An alleged conversation with God was related in which the Almighty was credited with saying, laconically: "Continue," to Sandford's prayer as to his course. The Holy Ghosts are disciples of God and that God was making a special effort to see that Sandford, his minister, received a fair trial, was another portion of the statement. Rev. Sandford's pull with God, however, did not prove strong enough to have him acquitted.

REMARKABLE CURES

Thankful People Tell What San Cura Ointment Did for Them. Erman & Son sell San Cura Ointment on the money back plan—no cure—no pay. Guaranteed to relieve immediately and permanently cure eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itching, bleeding or protruding piles, burns, cuts, bruises, old sores, pimples, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands, chilblains, festers, insect bites and poison ivy.

"My face and neck were one mass of sores; doctor said I had eczema and erysipelas. I had not slept for weeks with burning, itching pain. The first time I used San Cura Ointment I slept all night and in a short time was completely cured."—Chas. Fay, Townville, Pa.

"My wife stepped on a rusty nail and ran it into her foot. San Cura Ointment drew out a poisonous brown pus and cured her promptly."—Eugene McKenzie, Plum, Pa.

"I had been afflicted for over 30 years with piles and spent over $500 for pile medicine. Two jars of San Cura Ointment cured me."—James Lynch, Enterprise, Pa.

FOLLY TO TALK ABOUT SALOONS "COMING BACK"

There appeared in Thursday night's Advocate an advertisement containing alleged editorial clippings from newspapers in Marion, Portsmouth and Ironton, describing the alleged conditions existing in those cities since the "saloons came back." In this city we all know that it is not necessary for the saloons to "come back," for the very good reason that they never left. They are here now and have been since the county voted dry three years ago.

When, during all this time, you could stand on the count house steps and throw stone into the front doors of twelve saloons where liquor was and is sold openly, what folly it is to talk of the saloons "coming back."

The question before the voters of this county is not, therefore, whether the saloons will "come back," but whether the saloons shall be regulated and be compelled to pay their proportion of the taxes, or whether the present system of the unregulated saloon escaping its liquor tax shall continue.

It is a question that the taxpayer should be vitally interested in. THE BUSINESS MEN AND TAXPAYERS' PROTECTIVE LEAGUE. (Adv.)

Daddy's Bedtime Story
Fisherman Tommy Saves a Girl From Drowning

"I WISH Tommy Stone lived around here," began daddy. "I should wish you to know Tommy."
"Why, daddy?" asked Jack and Evelyn.
"Well, Tommy Stone is the sort of boy that I like. I think he could teach Jack a good many things worth knowing, although Tommy is a poor boy and never has had much chance to learn.
"Tommy's mother is a widow. She has two other children younger than Tommy, who is thirteen. She does sewing in the town where they live, and on this and what Tommy can earn out of school hours the family manages to get along. They have a garden, and Tommy works in it when he has spare time.
"Tommy sells anything from the garden that he can, and when they have eggs to spare he peddles them around among the neighbors. When the neighbors have an odd job which a boy can do Tommy is called in, and many are the dimes and quarters he picks up chopping wood, whitewashing chicken houses or running errands.
"One of Tommy's ways of making money is catching fish. Not far from his home is a lake in which are perch, bass, pickerel, pike and 'pumpkin seeds.' Whenever he has a chance Tommy takes an old boat that he has patched up and rows out into the lake to fish. Tommy is a good fisherman, or maybe the little fish think, as they probably will be caught anyway, they would rather be caught by a good little boy like Tommy, who will sell them and take the money home to his mother.
"One day Tommy was rowing about when he heard a scream. He turned his head and saw that a little girl had fallen into the water near the shore where a pier ran out into the lake. There was no one else about save the little girl's nurse, who came running and screaming to the shore.
"Tommy rowed with a will, and when he reached the child in the water he jumped in and swam with her to land.
"Tommy did not think much of this service. The next day a gentleman knocked at the door and asked for him. It was the father of the little girl. He had come to tell Tommy how glad he was that he had saved her life.
"I want to give you this to show how much I thank you for what you have done for us," the gentleman said as he was leaving, and he slipped a note into Tommy's hand.
"Tommy opened it and showed it to his mother when she came home. It was a check for a thousand dollars. The little girl's father was a very rich man, and he could well afford such a gift.
"With the money Tommy and his mother bought the little house they lived in and, owning their own home, are able to live much more comfortably."

THE GREAT WHITE PLAQUE.
How The Double Red Cross Originated.
Although the double Red Cross has been used in the United States for more than five years, as the emblem of the crusade against tuberculosis, few people have known how it originated.
The double red cross was first suggested as the symbol of the International Anti-Tuberculosis Association in Berlin in October 1902. Dr. G. Sersson of Paris was the proposer of the symbol and it was adopted at the Berlin meeting.
The double red cross is similar in shape to a cross used frequently in the Greek Catholic Churches and also in the Lorraine Cross of France. The Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis has adopted the standard proportions of nine for the length of the cross to five for the width of the arms, with a space one-ninth of the length between the arms.
Today, under this banner of the anti-tuberculosis crusade, societies have been formed in almost every civilized country in the world.

16 DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

OLD GAME IS WORKED AGAIN
Confidence Men in Paris Substituted a String of Imitation Pearls for Good Ones.
A Paris dealer in precious stones, M. Lagnel, was the victim of an audacious theft perpetrated by means of the time honored confidence trick. A few weeks ago M. Lagnel made the acquaintance of a young man who called himself Sognier. He was anxious to act as agent for M. Lagnel, and declared that he would be able to introduce wealthy clients.
A few days ago Sognier introduced to M. Lagnel a "wealthy friend" of his, whom he called M. Chevalier of Clermont-Ferrand, who desired to buy a pearl necklace for his wife. The man called M. Lagnel's office in the Rue du Temple, and M. Chevalier selected a necklace valued at $20,000. When about to pay he found that he had left his purse at his hotel. In order to be sure the necklace would not be exchanged for another while he was absent in search of the money, Chevalier asked if it could be placed in a sealed envelope. This was done, and Chevalier and his friend disappeared.
As they failed to return, the jeweler made inquiries, but could find no trace of them. He then opened the sealed envelope and found it contained imitation pearls worth but a few francs. The thieves had cleverly substituted a second envelope for the one containing the necklace.—Paris Letter to the London Chronicle.

CORN HUSKERS ARE KEPT BUSY AT GRANVILLE

Much Work Yet To Be Done Along That Line—Daughters of Rebekah Elect Officers.

Granville, Dec. 9.—Corn husking has been going on steadily in this section during the past week. There is much corn yet to be husked, and it will require good weather until the holidays to get all the corn safely cribbed. Much of the corn is in poor shape to be left in the field all winter, and a suspension of making operations until spring would ruin many bushels of corn and diminish the stream of coin that has been steadily flowing into the farmers' coffers. The rains that have fallen at frequent intervals during the fall and the freezing and thawing of the ground have kept it in the most miserable condition for harvesting for years. The growers will earn all they will get out of the crop this year. The wheat prospect is not improving. The fields between Granville and Newark where early sown looks as dead as if a fire had swept over it.

At the last meeting of Spring Valley Lodge, 346, Daughters of Rebekah, of this place, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Noble Grand, Mrs. Fred Evans; Vice Grand, Mrs. Clem Kelley; Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. D. King; Financial Secretary, Miss Kate Evans; Treasurer, Mrs. Jane Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Freeman and son Henry of near Bucyrus, who have been visiting here and in the vicinity for the past several days, returned home Friday evening.

A marriage that took place in Thurston on Wednesday is of interest to many Granville people, because of the fact that the parties are well known here. On that day the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Masheter in that place was the scene of the charming affair when their accomplished daughter, Miss Alene E. and Mr. James H. Sharp, son of Mr. John Sharp, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Harford of Granville in the presence of the members of the two families and a number of invited guests. The attendants were Miss Elizabeth Kane and Mr. Earl Jenkins of Lancaster. Miss Vera Miller rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. A splendid dinner was served. The happy young couple will go to house-keeping at once in Basil, where Mr. Sharp is prominently connected with the paper mill company there.

At the last regular meeting of Myrtle Lodge, No. 350, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Noble Grand, Samuel Belt; Vice Grand, William Smoke; Recording Secretary, John DeBow; Financial Secretary, Henry Welsh; Treasurer, Edward D. King; Trustee, John Wallace; S. D., R. J. Jones. Following the election of officers a fine lunch was served which was much enjoyed by those present.

At the St. Luke's Episcopal church regular services will be held Sunday morning and evening, conducted by the rector, Rev. A. Ramsey. Sunday school at 11 a. m.

At the Methodist church Sunday, the Rev. A. J. Hawk, pastor, will take for his morning theme, "Some American Problems." The theme for the evening will be, "The Duty of Watchfulness." Sunday school at 11 a. m., and Epworth League at 6 p. m.

There was a splendid attendance of the members of Altamaha lodge of Knights of Pythias of this place at the regular meeting on Wednesday night of this week and considerable business of importance was transacted. Old Altamaha is picking up this winter and work is being done at every meeting. Altamaha now ranks as one of the leading Pythian lodges of the county. Among the business transacted at this meeting the following officers for the ensuing term were elected: C. C. J. E. Pratt; V. G., John James; Prelate, Frank Weston; M. W., Frank Reese; M. A., Edward King; M. P., Frank Richards; K. of R. S., Dr. J. W. Rohrer; M. E. C. J. Wright; I. G., Edward Evans; O. G., Robert Aid; Trustee, C. B. Slack.

On next Monday evening at 7 o'clock an important meeting of the Civic Improvement committee will be held at the home of Mrs. A. K. Follett. It is desired that every member of the committee be present.

It is reported that A. R. Wright, who resides on the Alexandria road, several miles west of Granville, lost a large number of hogs during the past few days, all of them dying with cholera. It is said that quite a number of farmers in this vicinity have lost hogs in this manner during the past month.

Friday, December 8, was the anniversary of the birth of Captain John A. Fisher, the aged Mexican war veteran of Granville, he having reached the eighty-sixth anniversary of his birth. It was also the anniversary of the birth of Miss Helen Grandstaff, she being 17 years old. In honor of the Captain's anniversary, Miss Grandstaff baked a fine cake, which she presented to the old veteran. The Captain was greatly pleased and told the reporter that it was the first time in his life that a lady had presented him with a birthday present.

In the old days armies were safe at a distance of 400 yards, as arrows were not effective at that distance. Modern guns shoot projectiles that travel 15 miles.

NEWARK HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Supt. Hawkins and the men teachers of the high school banquipped the football team at Kuster's last night. Thirty sat down to a table of most delicious things. Besides Mr. Hawkins, the following were present: Messrs. Barnes, Tait, Stimpson, Millisor, Beatty, Neptune, Moninger, Carr, Patterson, Holiday, Painter and Steele. The other men teachers were prevented from being present by previous engagements. The guests were Mr. Wright of the Y. M. C. A., and the following members of the team: Ashley, Gilmore, J. Brown, C. Brown, Myers, Lauchly, Parker, Cook, Dickerson, Ward, Warner, Walt, Davis Mossman, Ori, Johns and Long. The following menu was served:

Vegetable soup.
Olives. Pickles. Celery.
Roast Turkey with Dressing.
Cranberry Sauce.
Creamed Potatoes.
Candied Sweet Potatoes.
Salad.
Ice Cream.
Cake. Coffee.

The basketball season has opened and from the interest shown a good season is to be expected. Mr. Millisor has been appointed coach by the board of education. At a meeting of the girls held Tuesday noon, about 58 names of those who intended to try for the different teams were handed in. Hickey Hall has been secured and practice will begin next week.

On account of the condition of the course, the cross-country run which was to have been held this morning was postponed until a later date. The medals which will be awarded the winners have arrived and can be seen at the high school building.

The first preliminary debate for those trying for positions on the high school debating team will be held next Tuesday. About 18 are trying for places. The following teachers will act as judges: Miss Wotring, Miss Jones, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Tait and Mr. Barnes.

The Triangular Debating League is increasing the number of debates in our school. Friday afternoon Mr. Dickerson's classes in city government held a debate on the question, "Resolved, That Cities Should Own and Control the Street Railways." The affirmative was sustained by Evan Warrington, Lillie Boyd, Emily McKnight and Leonard Briggs, while the negative was supported by Nyell Stevens, Hazel McAfee, Harold Shannon and Roy Layman. The judges awarded the decision to the negative.

Dr. Bates, president of Hiram College, visited school Monday. He gave a short talk to the senior class. The subject of his remarks was the building of plans for the future.

Without these, he says, no boy or girl will ever make a career.

Mr. Tait conducted the devotional exercises in chapel Wednesday morning.

The Roney Boys will be here next Friday. As they are prime favorites with the Newark people and the house for the evening is sold, there will be a matinee at 3:30. But this pleasing group of entertainers needs no introduction, as they are so well known.

INDIAN ECZEMA CURE.

Now Sold by Evans' Drug Store, Banishes Eczema, Itch, Salt Rheum, Etc.

If you are troubled with eczema and want to quickly get rid of the misery and agony, get a 50 cent box of Zu-Ke today.

No matter how many other remedies you have unsuccessfully tried, this old Indian cure Zu-Ke (never before advertised) will end your troubles and make you happy.

For skin diseases and especially eczema Zu-Ke has been used among white people for 60 years. Before that time it was the great remedy for every form of skin disease among several Indian tribes. It is the product of the forest—a marvelous formula. Genesee Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y.

JOHNSTOWN.

Among the Newark visitors from this place this week were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rusler, Mrs. McInturf, Mrs. C. G. Kasson and Miss Besse Z. Adams.

Miss Edith Philbrook returned Monday to her duties in Denison University, Granville, having spent the latter part of last week with her parents.

Mrs. M. Hursey, whose father was buried last Saturday, was called to her mother's bedside Tuesday.

Several changes have been made this week both in places of business and residence of families. C. N. Dinsmore moved his tinsmith parlors from the Joyce block to a Miss Beidler's building, she having removed her millinery stock to a room in her home. Ross & Patton now have their insurance office in the front rooms of the dwelling vacated by George Smith and family, who moved from the Fraley White building, corner of Pratt avenue and Main street to a house on Williams street, lately purchased by them from O. W. Brown, he and his wife moving to a house in the northern part of the town.

Superintendent of the Dresden Schools, E. T. Osborne, visited Mrs. Osborne's mother, Mrs. Martha Neff, last week.

The Tippet brothers, George, Wm. and Hallie, were called to Newark by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Dell Tippet, whose home is with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Pease.

Editors and breach of promise defendants generally pay on publication.

SEN. CANNON ASSAILS THE REPUBLICANS

FOR ITS BARGAIN AND PEACE PACT WITH CORRUPT MORMON ORGANIZATION.

Charges That Mormonism Made Bargains With Presidents and Presidential Candidates.

Columbus, O., Dec. 9.—To an audience that filled the Third Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon, of Utah last night arraigned the politico-financial-religious and alleged criminal organization that dominates the Mormon church and flayed the Mormon leaders, who he declared, had broken every pledge they had given to the government when the conscriptions against them were recalled in 1896.

Senator Cannon declared the power of the Mormon church is sweeping Eastward at an alarming rate, while its hold in what he termed the Mormon kingdom is being tightened through work of subservient politicians. He declared the Mormon church had made bargains with presidents and presidential candidates, dictated national platforms, had suppressed the facts in the Reed Smoot case and succeeded in keeping Mr. Smoot in the senate.

Against the majority of members of the Mormon church, Senator Cannon asserted it would be wrong to take drastic action. He recommended three remedies to reach the evils of Mormonism. A constitutional amendment restoring to the federal government the power to deal with polygamy which he demonstrated was a growing evil among the young people of the Mormon church; proceeded against the church trustees for dissolution of the property as a conspiracy in restraint of trade, and a demand by all citizens of the United States to their congressmen that "no ambassador from the Mormon kingdom be allowed to help frame the laws of the United States."

Himself a former Republican, whose father was an elder and him- self responsible in large part for the restoration to Mormons of the privileges of citizenship on the pledge that polygamy teachings were to be abandoned. Senator Cannon bitterly assailed the Republican party for its bargain and peace pact with the Mormon church.

He asserted that President Taft's attitude toward the church was the only one of the famous Roosevelt policies which the president had not dumped into the Potomac.

In discussing the political game which he said the Mormon leaders play, Senator Cannon did not spare the man in public life whom he most ardently admires, W. J. Bryan. In 1908 he said Mr. Bryan was a candidate, and Mr. Bryan's friends saw to it that no reference was made to polygamy or union of the church and state in the Democratic national platform.

"God forbid that any man should profit by such a compromise. Bryan did not receive a single electoral vote from any state in the Mormon kingdom," said he. He flayed former President Roosevelt for bringing tremendous pressure to bear on the United States senate to keep Reed Smoot one of the present senate leaders in his place.

"When Roosevelt was president of the United States," said he, "he twice met Prophet Smith and each time with a different Mrs. Smith. It may be supposed that Smith and all the Mrs. Smiths voted for Roosevelt and the Republican party. That doesn't excuse this Democratic party. It hasn't had anything to offer in many years."

Senator Cannon said that the Mormon organizations help to select the senators from the states of Wyoming, Idaho and other western states. It has selected, he said, a United States marshal for Utah, a man who was named by President Taft. He traced the growth of the church and declared that Prophet Smith wields more power as head of the church than any single one of the men known as the money kings of America.

He complimented the Daughters of the American revolution on the fight they are making against Mormonism. In presenting the senator, C. R. Shook declared that the work of Mr. Cannon would go a long way toward breaking up the Mormon control.

USE SAGE AND SULPHUR AND HAVE HEALTHY HAIR

What a pity it is to observe so many people thin and faded hair and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine, healthy head of hair if they would but use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers, combined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old, need have gray hair, weak, thin, or falling hair, dandruff or any trouble, of the sort if they would but use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of the hair, and restores the natural color of the hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean, wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start today with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur.

His preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Saved Many From Death.
W. L. Mock of Meek, Ariz. believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it's the best throat and lung medicine that's made. Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by Frank D. Hall."

Messrs. H. A. Bishop and Dr. F. M. Preston went to Columbus to meet Col. Graham, with a view of reorganizing the Uniform Rank, K. of P. The brothers should take an interest in this reorganization movement and make it go. All know that nothing adds more to the lodge work than the work of the U. R. K. P. team. Everybody interested should be a booster.—Johnstown Independent.

Roland Lodge met in regular session Tuesday evening with every officer present.

Bro. Maurice Kent was reported sick at his home in German street.

Bro. McCough is able to be at the table regularly, but has not ventured out as yet.

One application was received and referred to a committee.

The annual election of officers was held, the result being published in this paper earlier in the week.

Our entertainment committee was present, and, as usual, served a very appetizing lunch.

The Page rank next Tuesday evening. Let us have a good turn-out.

Modern Woodmen.
Cedar Camp, No. 4727, met in regular session Monday night. Two applications and one application by transfer card were received and elected to membership. I. H. Hoodlett, Otto Moessmang, B. E. Retherford and Thos. C. Wright were adopted as beneficial members.

The annual election of officers for 1912 resulted as follows:
Past Consul—B. F. McDonald.
Consul—A. G. Smith.

Adviser—W. B. Howell.
Banker—H. O. Cramer.
Clerk—E. C. Richardson.
Escort—B. F. Buchwalter.
Watchman—J. L. Lafave.
Sentry—J. H. Haines.
Manager—H. S. Barrick.

All repaired to the banquet room, where the refreshment committee had prepared an oyster supper. It was decided that as our last regular meeting in December comes on Xmas night, that the meeting for that night would be dispensed with and no meeting held. Next Monday night there will be candidates to be adopted.

Haymakers.
The next regular meeting of the Haymakers' Association, No. 52 1-2, will be held Tuesday night, Dec. 12, and a good turnout of the companions is desired, as the officers will be elected for the next term. Very important business will be discussed in regard to the Haymakers still remaining in the National Haymakers' Association of Ohio, and it is to every member's interest to be present at this meeting.

Red Men.
Minnewa Tribe, No. 52, met in regular council Friday. Three applications for membership were received. Applications presented at the last meeting were reported upon favorably and were declared elected. Fourteen brothers were advanced to the Warrior's degree. As there are only three more meeting nights in this term and as the membership contest closes Dec. 31, it was decided to adopt another class of palefaced Dec. 22, and all brothers have applications are requested to hand them in at the next regular meeting. Since Oct. 1 the brothers have been busy and 27 palefaced have been captured and three brothers reinstated. The Chief's degree will be conferred at the next regular meeting.

Ben Hur.
Alpha Court No. 51 meets the second and fourth Monday nights of each month. Our meetings have been full of enthusiasm and our pleasures and entertainments for the season have begun. Next Monday night an oyster supper and entertainment will be given in A. I. U. hall. All members are cordially invited to be present and enjoy our "good old times" again.

L. A. to O. R. C.

MEN ADRIFT ON ICE FLOE

Dorpat, Russia, Dec. 9.—More than 100 fishermen are adrift on an ice floe in Lake Behus. As all the lake steamers are laid up for the winter some time will elapse before rescuers can be sent to the scene. It is feared many will die from starvation or cold before help can arrive.

The average woman can do more with a halpkin than the average man can do with a half box of tools.

TWO HORSES CREMATED IN BARN BLAZE

OIL STOVE USED TO RIPEN BANANAS MAY HAVE CAUSED THE FIRE.

Delay in Getting Alarm To Department Allowed Flames To Gain Great Headway.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed part of a barn occupied by Henry Deiminger, a fruit and vegetable dealer, in the rear of the high school building, Friday night about nine o'clock. With the barn, two horses, several wagons and sets of harness and a quantity of fruits and vegetables were destroyed. The loss will be between $500 and $1000.

It was about 8:45 o'clock when the blaze was discovered by residents in the neighborhood. Efforts to notify the department failed and it was not until the driver of a taxi whirled around the corner at Fourth and Main streets and told Captain Dennis Foley that a barn was burning in the rear of the high school.

The light of the blaze was reflected in the heavens at this time and the two trucks from the Central station hurried to the scene of the blaze.

The entire lower part of the structure was a seething mass of flames by the time the firemen arrived and it was impossible at that time to save either of the horses.

The firemen succeeded in getting control of the blaze before it spread to the hayloft above. Within a short time the blaze was entirely extinguished.

It is the opinion of Chief Bausch that the blaze started in the small "lean-to" which had been added to the structure on the east. In this shed had been placed a wagon which contained a large quantity of bananas. The wagon was enclosed with glass and a small oil heater had been placed in the wagon to ripen the fruit.

Whether the blaze started from this is not known, but further investigation may develop this fact. Deiminger carried $700 insurance in the E. T. Johnson agency on the horses, harness and wagons, and $300 on the fruits and vegetables he might have contained in the building. Three horses were stabled in the building but at the time of the fire Deiminger was driving one of the animals.

The building is owned by John Keifer, and it could not be learned if any insurance protected him against loss.

State Fire Marshal Zenger of Columbus arrived in the city shortly before noon Saturday to make an investigation into the fire.

Deiminger was called before the fire marshal and a deputy from the headquarters office in Columbus and closely questioned. Chief Bausch was present at the inquiry. Deiminger was allowed to go after the conference was concluded, but the investigation may be carried further.

ECZEMA

(Also Called Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pruritus, Milk-Crust, Weeping Skin, etc.)
ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY,

and when I say cured, I mean just what I say—CURED—E-D, and not merely patched up for awhile, to return worse than before. Remember I make this broad statement after putting ten years of my time on this one disease and handling in the mean-time a quarter of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—all I ask is just a chance to show you what I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TODAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild, soothing, guaranteed cure that will convince you in more than a day that I or anyone else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged, I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. By writing me to-day you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth. Dr. J. E. Canaday, 1421 Park Square, Sedalia, Mo. Refuse to be deceived. ENDS STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and let you eat one 23-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, bad taste in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapiesin.

A square deal for all is a Red Cross Christmas seal. At the Advocate office.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 9.—M. C. Patterson, son of Malcolm R. Patterson, former United States Congressman and Governor of Tennessee from 1907 to 1909, is under arrest for the fatal shooting of R. T. Seal, a Port Orchard gunner, yesterday.

Thursday night Patterson and a stranger whom the authorities are making every effort to locate, showed up at Seal's stable and induced him to drive them out to the country on a mysterious journey. Seal and Patterson returned alone. Upon arrival at the stable a shot was heard, and when the awakened villagers reached the stable Seal was found shot through the lung. He was hurried to the Bremerton Hospital where he is dying and unable to make a statement.

Patterson admits the shooting, but refuses to discuss it in anyway. He has been liberally supplied with money by his father who is now a lawyer in Memphis. Young Patterson has often boasted of his prowess with a gun. Patterson has been in the northwest only a few weeks.

MAY PROVE FATAL.

When Will Newark People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But when you know 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles follow;

That Bright's disease may be the fatal end.

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

This statement of a Newark citizen.

William Larason, 435 W. Main St., Newark, Ohio, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills will give satisfactory results, if taken according to directions. I know this from experience. My kidneys were in very bad shape. Their action was irregular and the secretion contained sediment. My back ached too until I used Doan's Kidney Pills procured from A. F. Crayton and Co.'s Drug Store. They stopped the pains and regulated the action of the kidneys."

RETURNED MONEY THROUGH MAIL TO THE NORTON STORE

A L. Norton, of The A. L. Norton Company, is much puzzled over a communication which he received in his mail Saturday morning. The enclosure was a perfectly good $5 silver certificate and the currency was accompanied by a scribbled note on a piece of coin wrapper with the words: "A. L. Norton, money I owe you. $5. Please acknowledge through papers." No name was signed and nothing to indicate from whom the money was received. The envelope was of ordinary linen paper and was addressed to "A. L. Norton, care A. L. Norton Co., City."

Mr. Norton has racked his brain for a clue to the identity of the donor of the $5 note but has been unable to pick from his debtors, any who would wish to conceal their identity.

He is further in doubt as to whether the money should be credited to the firm's cash account or whether the money is his personally.

"I wish you would ask the sender to notify me whether the money belongs to the firm or to me personally," said Mr. Norton as he related the story to the Advocate.

AUTO TIRE COMPANY

E. T. Rugg & Company Are Branching Out Into a New Industry.

E. T. Rugg & Company of this city are testing rubber automobile tires, through experts, and have made quite a start in the new line, having placed in use among the citizens a number of tires.

This new industry promises to be a thriving concern for hundreds of thousands of automobile tires are sold annually in this as well as foreign countries.

The new company will be known as the Newark Tire and Rubber Co. and has placed a specimen of the new tire in the Advocate's window—Made in Newark. Here is an opportunity for the automobile owner to boost Newark by asking their dealer for a "Made in Newark" product.

POLICE COURT

Three suspicious characters were arrested Friday night at the interurban station as they left a Columbus car. One of the men was crippled and another was blind. The police department believes the men were coming to Newark for a systematic begging campaign and locked them up.

Several drunks were arrested Friday night, but none of the cases was tried, as there was no session of police court. All these cases will be carried over until Monday.

NEWARK, OHIO.

A Fine Xmas Present

FOR THE WIFE OR HOUSEKEEPER WOULD BE ONE OF OUR

"DUPLIX"

ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANERS

Runs easier than a carpet sweeper; cleans without dust; costs only 2 cents per day of 10 hours to operate it; saves the housekeeper over one-half of her hard work in keeping the house clean. It does the same identical work as the $125.00 Electric Machines at less than one-fourth the cost. Who can think of a more appropriate gift? We also manufacture the famous U.S. Hand Cleaner, of which there are over 100 sold in Newark alone. Satisfaction guaranteed. Phone or call for free demonstration of either of these machines.
